

The Breakdown of Revelation

Introduction

Only the servants of God (the followers of Christ in the New Testament), will be able to understand the book of Revelation. This will be proved with scriptures, and is repeated throughout the Bible. The servants of God, those who endured all things for Christ's sake by following his teachings, until the end (the end of their lives), will be raised up again before the second coming of Christ. The understanding of Revelation, will be giving to them. Revelation 3:10: "Because thou hast kept the word of my patience, I also will keep thee from the hour of temptation, which shall come upon all the world, to try them that dwell upon the earth."

Revelation 1:3: "Blessed is he that readeth, and they that hear the words of this prophecy, and keep those things which are written therein: for the time is at hand."

As explained in Revelation 1:1: "The Revelation of Jesus Christ, which God gave unto him, to shew unto his servants things which must shortly come to pass; and he sent and signified it by his angel unto his servant John:"

The prophecies ("things which must shortly come to pass") are found throughout the book of Revelation. The book of Revelation contains the same prophecies as the book that Christ was worthy to take from the Lord in Revelation 5:1-7. That book has seven seals; Christ opens each seal, one through seven, in order. The prophecies contained in the book of Revelation, must be placed in their proper seal.

It is important to note, the gospel has not changed concerning the Gentiles who accepted, and followed Christ's teachings, those who endured all things until the end (the end of their lives). They are included as the servants of God. Ephesians 3:6: "That the Gentiles should be fellow heirs, and of the same body, and partakers of His promise in Christ by the Gospel."

Galatians 1:8-9: "But even if we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel to you than what we have preached to you, let him be accursed." Verse 9: "As we have said before, so now I say again, if anyone preaches any other gospel to you than what you have received, let him be accursed."

Therefore, the Gentiles, those who accepted and endured all things until the end for Christ's sake, are fellow heirs and partakers of the promises that were made to the Israelites. Those promises are found throughout the Bible and include the book of Revelation. The book of Revelation is a continuation of the gospel of Christ!
